RENEWALS

All library materials not on reserve may be renewed twice, either by phone or in person-with the exception of Museum Passes and Electronics/Equipment.

FINES AND CHARGES

1. Fines are not charged for material which is lost and paid.
2. Patrons may keep damaged material for which they have paid in full.
3. Receipts are given for all lost and paid material. Receipts are given for fines on request.
4. The library refunds the price of lost and paid material, if it is returned in good condition within six months, with the exception of electronic material. Electronic material must be returned in good condition within two weeks.
5. When the borrower makes a token payment for delinquent material, he/she may retain his/her library card since the material has been returned and the patron is acting in good faith. The patron should be urged to clear the remaining fines as quickly as possible (can pay in three installments.)

6. A patron owing more than $5.00 in fines may not take out CDs, DVDs, or videos until the fine owed is below $5.00 or they make a payment on the outstanding amount.
7. A patron owing more than $15.00 dollars in fines, or more than $25.00 in outstanding materials, may not take out material until a payment is made.
