LPL Young Adult Services Room Policy Statement

Levittown Public Library's Young Adult Services Room was created as a dedicated space for young adults in grades six through twelve to gather, socialize and use library resources. Therefore, the Young Adult Room is reserved for use by those patrons in grades six through twelve exclusively, when school is not in session and on weekends and holidays and during school vacations. Although adults may come into the room to pick up Young Adult materials, anyone over 12th grade who is not accompanied by a Young Adult may be asked to leave if the room is being used by Young Adults. Anyone under 6th grade will be redirected to the Children's Room.

Approved by the Board of Trustees, October 6, 2010.
Revised June 6, 2018.
